

Diversity at The Data Incubator

At TDI, we work hard to attract a diverse group of applicants each year.

WE'VE MADE IT OUR GOAL TO PROVIDE DATA SCIENCE TRAINING TO EVERYONE.

In 2020, our applicants were:

The average tenure of someone in a tech role is only 3 years, but nearly a third of our candidates remain at the companies we place them with for 3 or more years.

Our thorough vetting process ensures each candidate's commitment to working in business, technical skills and education.

The intensive, hands-on training from TDI ensures a high level of skill and understanding of data in a business setting
